

WARNING

Telephone Scams

North Stonington Residents are getting telephone calls from individuals stating they are the IRS calling to collect unpaid taxes.

This is a telephone scam that has been happening in Southeastern Connecticut Region. Do not give any personal information to these people. Do not engage in an argument with them.

The Connecticut State Police are aware of this and are investigating the problem.

Remember do not give them any information;
just hang up the telephone.